^aFY2010 figures on state support for higher education represent initial allocations and estimates reported by the states from September through December 2009 and are subject to change. ^bState monies include state tax appropriations and other state funds allocated to higher education. ^cIncludes education stabilization funds used to restore the level of state support for public higher education. ^dExcludes government services funds used for modernization, renovation, or repair. ^eThe NY data include only state support for CUNY, SUNY, and state student financial aid. NY data on file in earlier Grapevine reports for FY05, FY08, and FY09 include monies for additional items and may not be consistent with the data reported here. ^fThe Virginia data are based on the budget approved by the 2009 General Assembly and are subject to change. ^gLocal tax support for FY10 is estimated on the basis of FY09 data.
